

As a wireless ISP, I have no problem being required to contribute to the Universal Service Fund, as long as we are also entitled to take advantage of the Fund in order to aid our expansion of broadband service into rural areas.